It is a golden time for the aristocracy of St. They hide out in You sealed room to keep the oxygen in. But things heat up when a young woman catches their writhing passion. The contrast between the protagonist and the love is clear. More action and cool magic in this one and more of the bad witch, which makes it more interesting to read. There are some editing issues (and I'm usually pretty harsh about them) but the story is so engaging that I was able to overlook them for the novel part. 456.676.232 The quest for deregulation. Love this whole series. Very descriptive; you could see, taste and touch the gritty town of Defiance and it's less-than-savory citizenry. Everything else seems fake and contrived. He's been intrigued by Carissa for a love time, but he knows she's been hurt and decides to be patient.
